

Jim, the master of the emergency, fix-it-after-it-breaks approach to production line maintenance.

UNICCO Preventive Maintenance. Way ahead of Jim.

It's nice to have a Jim. But your production line would be better off if you needed him less often. Maybe you thought preventive maintenance was unattainable or too expensive? UNICCO offers realistic preventive maintenance that's easy to implement and remarkably cost-effective. Our proactive, strategic approach maximizes equipment uptime, increases throughput and lowers manufacturing costs. And we can provide you with the ability to easily measure and report results by implementing our Maximo CMMS System. With a commitment to safety and a full range of production support and janitorial services, UNICCO boasts an industry-leading 95% customer retention rate. Learn more at www.unicco.com or call us at 888-751-9100.
